Background

Anna Berger has been cooperating with the SDZLEGAL Schindhelm since November 2021. She was admitted to the list of attorneys-at-law in 2023.

She gained experience in law firms specializing in business services, as well as in an international insurance corporation, where she managed the work of teams and coordinated projects.

She graduated with a law degree from the University of Wrocław, and also holds a bachelor's degree in international relations and a bachelor's degree in journalism and social communication from the University of Wrocław. During her studies she provided legal advice at the University Legal Clinic, and also represented Poland in the semi-final round of the Telders International Law Moot Court competition in The Hague.

She was awarded an Erasmus scholarship. She took a course in British law organized by the British Law Centre based in Cambridge (Cambridge University's Law Faculty).

Anna Berger is also the author of publications on labor law topics.

Expertise

Anna Berger advises domestic and foreign entities on labor law. As part of her specialization, she prepares drafts of intra-company legal regulations, prepares legal opinions, participates in court proceedings, conducts audits, and provides training. Her professional interests include international law, business law and arbitration. She provides legal services in Polish and English.
